CANYON GETS $9,000 FOR WATER FROM PWA

INCREASED QUOTA AND PROJECTS APPROVED

250 MEN ARE GIVEN WORK IN COUNTY

Seek to Increase Quota Over the Amount Allowed

APPROVE PROJECTS

Fourth Avenue Widening Start When Road is Completed

An increase in the county's quota, and approval of additional projects were accomplished Friday at Austin by a delegation from Randall county, composed of J. H. Cox, Jr., chairman of the Randall county committee, Judge S. B. Orton, G. B. Heath, and Clyde W. Warwick. The working quota was increased from 157 to 250, with the assurance that it would be further increased if permission could be secured from Washington for an increase in the Texas allotment.

A number of projects in Randall county were approved while the delegation was in Austin, the largest of which was improvement on the road south from the high school.

A considerable portion of the increased quota is taken up at the present time by the federal projects which are under way in the county. These projects consist of the sanitation project, and the farm housing project.

Another federal project was authorized this week which consists of a survey of farm family living, being a comparison in the cost of living at the present time with that of past years. Clark Ash has been named by the Austin office to make this survey.

Work was resumed yesterday on the Ceta and Umbarger road projects by a force of 14 men on each road.

It is planned to start other projects as soon as the force is reduced on the highway to the Palo Duro Park, giving work in all parts of the county. Work on widening Fourth Avenue will probably be the first project to be accomplished in Canyon. This will be started as soon as men can be released from the Park road.

New Library Has Good Start With Reader Interest

Randall County's library, located at the Court House has been open for one week, and Miss Fannie Malone, who is in charge, states that many people are coming to the room provided and are making good use of the books and magazines.

There is already a demand for Book Tickets which can be purchased for $1.00 and which entitles the holder to check out books for a period of one year.

Anyone who wishes to read in the library may do so without any charge whatever.

Children's books are being added to the library so that it will be more valuable to pupils of the school and to parents who wish to secure books for their children to read at home.

Generators for CCC Camp Arrive–Lights Will Soon Be Used

The four CCC camps of the Palo Duro State Park will soon be lighted by electricity. The two generators have arrived and are being installed. The entire camp will be lighted as soon as the camp is completed.

More than 80 men arrived yesterday to be assigned to the four companies. None of the four will be completed to full strength unless the enrollment day is continued since the time for enlistment expired at midnight.

Grand Jury Returns Four Indictments

Four Men Are Given Suspended Sentences in Term

Four men were given suspended sentences and one was freed by a jury in district court this week.

No civil cases were tried during the week.

Clyde Johnston was tried Thursday on the charge of transporting liquor. A jury found him not guilty on the indictment.

John Terrell and O. M. Oleson entered a plea of guilty and were given a three year suspended sentence on the charge of possession of liquor. They were arrested on the Finck place north of the Palo Duro State Park. Both men had been discharged from the CCC camp.

Sylvester Williams and Charlie Williams were given four years suspended sentences on the charge of possession of liquor.

The grand jury has returned four indictments, arrest having been made on all but one. Two indictments included the four men who were given suspended sentences. The grand jury adjourned Tuesday until next Wednesday when it will meet again to consider any cases which may develop. This body has examined more than 100 witnesses.

Duncan Thomas was arrested on an indictment, charged with theft at the P. & G. Grocery recently when the safe was robbed.

This term of court will continue until January 20th.

Hog Contracts to Be Given Farmers In Near Future

As soon as forms are received from Washington, we will be ready to start signing hog reduction contracts for farmers in Randall County. These contracts will be similar to the wheat acreage reduction contracts. The first step for the farmer who is interested in these hog adjustment payments is to furnish figures to show his average production of hogs for the past two years from December 1st. This is done by giving the number of litters farrowed (not number of pigs). Then the number of pigs raised from these litters. The disposition of these hogs must also be shown. A work sheet similar to the one used in Randall County for the wheat contracts is being prepared in Washington for use all over the country. A supply of these will be on hand in a few days for the convenience of farmers in preparing data for contracts.

A meeting of all farmers interested in the hog contracts will be held as soon as possible after supplies are received.

C. O. Cooper Buys "M" System, and Is Now in Possession

C. O. Cooper bought the "M" System store of John Jacobsen and took possession last week. Mr. Jacobsen will return to Hereford when he has closed his business affairs here.

Mr. Cooper has been connected with the grocery business of Canyon for several years, and has many friends who are pleased to have him own a business of his own. Mr. Cooper is inviting his friends to meet him in the new business on the east side of the square.

A. M. SMITH IMPROVES

Report from the hospital this morning indicates that Alfred M. Smith is improving. He has been in a serious condition since his operation two weeks ago yesterday. He was able to eat yesterday for the first time since the operation.

Rev. Chas. L. Dickey and family returned yesterday from Mesquite where he was called to conduct the funeral of a former parishoner.

Felix Neff Is Candidate County and District Clerk

TO THE VOTERS OF RANDALL COUNTY:

I take this means of announcing that I am a candidate for the office of County and District Clerk of Randall County, Texas, subject to the Democratic Primary in July, 1934.

I have lived in and around Canyon for the past twenty-five years and for the past four years I have been engaged in the grain and elevator business in Canyon. I attended the College here for two years and I believe that I am well qualified to properly attend to the duties of this office.

I assure you that I am greatly in need of this office because of the shortage of crops during my business operations here.

Your vote and influence will be appreciated.

FELIX NEFF.

President J. A. Hill Presents College Projects to PWA

President J. A. Hill went to Fort Worth Tuesday night where he appeared yesterday before the Texas committee of PWA, presenting improvement projects for W. T. Included in the projects presented was the addition to Cousins Hall, and improvements at the T-Anchor College Farm.

If approved by the Texas committee, the projects will be sent to Washington.

A small number of Texas projects have been approved in Washington, including the water works extension in Canyon. A large number of other Texas projects have been passed to Washington, but as yet have not been approved.

Miss Louise Wester and her mother, Mrs. M. M. Wester, spent the holidays in Plainview with friends.

TEN PEOPLE ARE AWARDED $10 IN CASH

Big Crowd Winds Up Campaign of Past 6 Weeks

DRAWING IS HELD

$10 Bills Are Given By Business Men on Friday p. m.

One of the largest crowds ever gathered in Canyon came Friday afternoon for the distribution of the $100 which was given away free by the business houses of Canyon.

Thirty-nine Canyon firms joined in the six-weeks campaign, the purpose of which was to stimulate local trade during the holiday season. Starting in November, the campaign continued until 4:00 o'clock Friday afternoon, during which time 42,000 tickets were distributed.

At the drawing Friday, only two tickets were drawn without the holder being present.

The following received a new $10.00 bill each:

H. Bethurem.
John Root.
C. S. Williams.
Robert Newton.
Mrs. Fred Soll.
Lee Jennings.
Rufus Johnson.
A. E. Brown.
Mrs. H. M. Cook.
Mrs. Vester.

Whether or not another campaign will be inaugurated by the business houses in the near future has not been decided. The people were highly pleased with the campaign, as shown by the large turn out of citizens to see the final wind up and distribution of cash.

MEXICAN DIED YESTERDAY

Rafel Gonzales died yesterday morning in the Mexican quarters of the Santa Fe. The funeral services will be held this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Catholic Church.

Buffaloes to Take on Alva 2 Games

A. C. Donnell Is Candidate Sheriff, Assessor, Collector

TO THE CITIZENS OF RANDALL COUNTY:

I hereby publish my announcement for the office of Sheriff, Tax Assessor and Collector of Randall County, subject to the Democratic Primary, in July, and let it be understood that I am asking for the office: First, because of the number of citizens of this county who have solicited my entering the race.

Second, because I feel that I am qualified for the position I seek, having served as a peace officer for a number of years, and served this county for two years as Deputy Sheriff and Tax Collector.

Third, because I need the office, and assure you that any consideration shown me will be greatly appreciated.

A. C. DONNELL.

Rotary Club to Entertain Rotary Anns Tuesday p. m.

The annual Rotary Ann night of the Canyon Rotary Club will be observed next Tuesday night at 6:30 o'clock with a dinner at the Presbyterian Church.

The program will be in charge of President Sylvester Ingham.

An inter-city meeting will be held February 13th when the Plainview Club will visit Canyon.

Visitors Tuesday were H. M. Russell, Arthur Osgood, N. S. Griggs, H. B. Lotts and O. B. Carder, all of Amarillo.

MRS. BELLAH VERY ILL

R. A. Bellah and son, Alfred Bellah, left Monday for Mineral Wells, called by the illness of Mrs. R. A. Bellah, who has been there several months for medical treatment. Word yesterday states that Mrs. Bellah has not improved this week.

Team Starts Clicking After Defeat of Week End

After dropping two games to the Southwestern Okla. Teachers, one by a one-point margin, the West Texas Buffaloes take on another strong Oklahoma team, one Northwestern Okla. Teachers of Alva, for a two-game series Friday and Saturday nights.

Northwestern has played five games, winning three and losing two. They beat the House of David quintet 74 to 23. The Alva team was characterized by Rankin Williams of the Southwestern team as every bit as strong as his team. However, while the Buffs have only played two games, they should win from the invaders. At times the Buffs offense showed flashes of superiority to the Bulldogs, while at times there was no co-ordination, and even crip shots were missed. Inability to hit the basket was responsible for both losses. Much of that can be attributed to the holiday layoff, and with the two games and the week of practice the Buffs should be clicking next Friday and Saturday.

Alva will present an experienced team, and with five games behind them, should be a worthy foe. They have four first-stringers from last year's team. Dick Smith, was all-state forward and all-state captain last year. McDonald was second all-state center last year. Whiteneck and McLaughlin are two veteran guards who are playing their last year. All four of these lettermen are seniors and have had lots of experience. The other member of the first five, though only a freshman, makes up for his lack of experience by his height. He stands six feet eight and three-fourths inches tall in his stocking feet. Johnson and Haddox are two other forwards who have had lots of experience.

Though the Buffaloes were handicapped by the loss of "Cow" Williams, little Ted Phillips who took his place turned in a good account of himself in both games.

Capt. Russell Stroud had evidently just begun to click when he was chased from the game with four personal fouls. He should be leading his teammates in the coming games as a real captain should.

Walker, Richards, and McMinn should benefit greatly from the experience of two games, while Clement, and Britt proved themselves capable substitutes.

Sanitation Survey Gets Good Start in Randall County

B. L. Grimes, assistant state director of Sanitation, was in the city yesterday making an inspection of the work started by J. E. Fuqua. With a squad of 17 men, Mr. Fuqua has started building sanitary toilets at the various school houses of the county, at the dairies, and at the farm homes which request this service.

All of the labor in connection with the building is furnished free through CWA. The owner of the farm is required to furnish the materials, which are very nominal in cost.

Mr. Grimes stated that Mr. Fuqua was one of the most valuable men of his department, and urged citizens to make use of this free service which is being offered by the government until February 15.

BROTHER DIES

Ross M. Dickerson of Abilene, brother of N. T. and W. M. Dickerson of Canyon, died at a Lubbock hospital last Friday afternoon, following an illness of pneumonia. The two brothers and their families from here attended the funeral services at Lubbock Saturday morning and burial at Silverton.

Ross Dickerson lived in Canyon from 1921-23, during which time he was employed at the McQueen Drug Store.

Miss Mary Morgan Brown and Miss Jennie C. Ritchie were Amarillo callers Wednesday afternoon.

APPROVAL OF GIFTS, LOAN IS RECEIVED

Money Available to Begin Work Very Soon

EXTENTION MAINS

Better Water Supply and Added Fire Protection Result

The city of Canyon's water works extension was approved last Thursday in Washington by the PWA in the sum of $9,000. This sum consists of a joint gift and loan for the purpose of extending the water mains around the business section of the city. The new mains will give an added water supply as well as increase the fire protection of the business section.

No definite word has been received as to the next step necessary on the part of the city. Authority has been asked for the city to put in the new mains under the direction of the manager of the water system, G. H. Hardman. It may be required of the government that a contract be let on the job.

If the city is allowed to do the work, a contract will be let for the materials necessary. Definite information is being asked from the Fort Worth PWA office as to the next step necessary in this matter.

Canyon is among the few towns of Northwest Texas to secure a PWA loan and gift from the government. Application has been made for a county-city hospital, but this has not been taken up by the Texas committee.

The College has applied for several PWA projects, but none have so far been approved.

Farm Housing Of County Being Subject to a Survey

Eleven farm women of Randall county are visiting the farm homes of their various districts making a most complete survey of housing conditions. An office force of five receive the reports of the solicitors daily, and start to tabulate the results as obtained.

Miss Orene McClellan and Royall Cantrell were sent here last week from A. & M. College to conduct this survey, which is being made under the bureau of Home Economics of the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

One question seems to be troubling most of the farmers, that is relative to what they would do to improve their homes if they had either $500, $250 or $100; and "would you be interested in borrowing money to finance" this work. While the survey is not made with a view of the government loaning this money, it is supposed that the President is attempting to ascertain actual conditions in the 300 counties of the United States which were selected as being representative of their sections, and learn what interest the farmers are taking in home improvements.

W. T. Continued in Class A Teachers College U. S.

The West Texas State Teachers College has again been placed on the Class A list of the American Association of Teachers Colleges.

The accrediting committee of this agency met in Cleveland, Ohio, on December 19 and 20, and Charles M. Hunt, the secretary-treasurer wrote Dr. J. A. Hill as follows: "The committee found that all the standards had been met by the West Texas State Teachers College."

President Hill will attend the annual meeting of the Association at Cleveland, Ohio, during the latter part of February, in connection with the winter N. E. A. meeting.

Mrs. J. T. Service returned Monday from Oklahoma City where she spent the holidays with her sons.

Why should not the Republicans be amazed at the program of President Roosevelt? Why shouldn't they start a bombardment against the chief executive? Why should they agree to any of his policies? Who ever heard of a Republican leader having the slightest interest in the poor man, as has President Roosevelt? Where has there been a Republican President of recent years who advocated doing anything for the common man? What Republican leader ever thought of doing more than piling up the riches of Wall Street bankers, regardless of the effect upon the poor farmers and poor laborers scattered over the nation? This policy of a New Deal is something new to Republican leaders. No wonder they were amazed that the President should seek money to help the down and out; the fellow who has more respectability than the bread line; the man who is about to lose his home; the farmer who has been producing wheat and cotton and live stock at a loss. Yes, the President offers something quite amazing to the Republican leaders; a program, if carried out successfully, which will spell disaster to Republican hopes for return to power in 1936.

While rather high-pressure methods were necessary to dispose of the first relief bonds, the results will prove satisfactory. The people of Texas had the idea in voting for these bonds that the federal government would take the bonds, and then cancel them when pay day came. This proved erroneous. The federal government has poured money into Texas for relief purposes, and now demands that Texas take care of its own distress cases. The present bonds will have to be paid off. So many Texans are buying the bonds that the legislature will be forced to repay those who buy. The legislature will not be able to ignore these bonds as it has the present outstanding bonds owned by the school fund. With so many Texans owning the bonds, the legislature will be forced to pay off when the bonds mature.

This is tax paying month, and Randall county citizens should make a patriotic effort to pay their taxes. The schools of the county must have the money on which to operate; the city government cannot function if taxes are not paid; the county government will be crippled if it has no money. Too often people get the idea that some how or other the local government will continue regardless of taxes paid. Usually they believe that the government is a magician capable of reaching out into space and getting money where it does not exist. This is an absurd belief, and one which should be corrected in the minds of all citizens. The government succeeds only as the people take an interest in it, and contribute to its support. Let's pay our taxes.

Down at Austin the prediction is that Clint Small will be in the run-off, and will likely be the next Governor of Texas. Wise political leaders who are watching the trend of affairs state that political leaders from every section of Texas who come to Austin bring the message that Clint Small is far above any other candidate in the race. Word from over the Panhandle and West Texas indicates that this section will stay with Clint Small in as large numbers as they did when he made his first race, regardless of the bunch who are running from Wichita Falls. The Panhandle is going to have the opportunity to elect the next Governor of Texas.

President Roosevelt talked with the people of America while addressing congress. With charges being made by his enemies that Roosevelt sought dictatorship, the President made it clear that the government was a partnership affair, with equal responsibility between the President and the Congress, both working for the benefit of the people. With a clear majority of Democrats in both the House and Senate, it is likely that the President will be able to continue his unrestrained leadership.

The usual New Year resolutions and predictions are missing this year. The wise business leaders realize that things are changing so rapidly that a guess cannot be safely hazarded upon any subject. The people of America have new ideals in connection with the New Deal. The things which were true yesterday prove to be false today. It is a wise man who refuses to predict too far into the future.

Pay your poll tax before January 31st. There will be a big session of politics in Texas this year, and only those with poll tax receipts will be able to participate.

In Bank Law, New Year Brings New Deal to Nation's Depositors

ON New Year's Day, American banking, prodded by Uncle Sam, turned over a new leaf. On that day, the Glass-Steagall banking law, with its deposit insurance feature, went into effect. As a result, the nation's depositors never again may experience the widespread loss of life savings, forfeiture of homes and general distress which always have trailed in the wake of bank disasters.

For the first six months—until July 1—the law guarantees only deposits of $2500 and less. But afterward deposits ranging up to $10,000 will be guaranteed in full; there will be a 75 per cent guarantee on sums ranging from $10,000 to $50,000; and those with $50,000 or more in banks may be assured of the return of at least half their money.

The new law has other important provisions. Through it, the Federal Reserve now may keep a check rein on the speculative activities of its member banks. It may, for instance, determine just how much a member bank may loan on security collateral.

It can shut off the flow of money to member banks lending to assist stock market speculation. It can remove bank officials guilty of "unsafe or unsound practices."

And the law has other provisions looking toward a sounder banking system.

* * *

UNTIL July 1, a temporary "Federal Deposit Insurance Fund" will protect depositors. The fund is available to all licensed Federal Reserve banks and any other solvent banks which are eligible and care to enter.

On July 1, a permanent "Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation" will be set up. In two years from that day, all banks which wish to continue benefiting by the deposit guarantee feature must become Federal Reserve members.

The Deposit Insurance Fund will be financed by the payment of $150,000,000 from a treasury fund which has been paid in by the Federal Reserve over a number of years; $150,000,000 from the surplus of the Federal Reserve banks, and $150,000,000 from the participating banks.

For the deposit insurance privilege, these latter banks must, in addition, contribute a small percentage of their total deposits, plus a like share of their later increases in deposits, both before and after the permanent corporation goes into effect on July 1.

The amount paid in after that date pays for stock in the corporation.

* * *

OPPONENTS of the "Banking Act of 1933," the official title of the Glass-Steagall law, argue that it will put a premium on bad banking. Prospective depositors, they claim, will not use care in choosing their banks, since the government guarantees that deposits are safe in any FDIC member bank.

On the other hand, advocates of the law do not see why deposit insurance cannot prove as successful as fire or accident insurance. They believe it will make banks secure, restore confidence and eliminate hoarding.

And, above all, they foresee it forever will do away with the tragedy which bank failures visit upon the "little man."

President Roosevelt, in congratulating Senator Carter Glass of Virginia upon the law's passage, declared it was the greatest piece of banking legislation enacted since creation of the Federal Reserve System.

For the deposit insurance feature of the new banking law, these two men are mainly responsible. For 15 years Representative Henry B. Steagall, above, of Alabama, chairman of the House Banking and Currency Committee, has been fighting for some sort of a deposit guarantee measure. His efforts have been rewarded by the inclusion of such a feature in the Glass-Steagall Act. And it was mainly due to Senator Arthur H. Vandenberg, below, of Michigan, that the guarantee feature remained in the banking bill during its passage through the Senate.

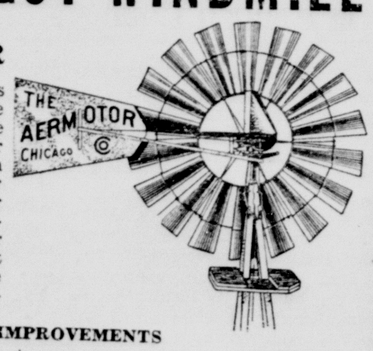
THE NEWEST WINDMILL
AN IMPROVED AEROMOTOR



Important improvements in the construction of the Auto-Oiled Aremotor have just been completed. Our engineers have made an exhaustive search for every possible means for improving the performance of the Aermotor The result is the best windmill that we have ever made without any advance in prices.

THE IMPROVEMENTS

The Wheel Shaft has been increased in size to give ample strength to meet any emergency.

Removeable Bearings are used for the wheel shaft and the large gears. These bearings can easily be replaced on the tower if it should ever become necessary.

The Wheel Arms screw into the hub so that they can never work loose. The wheel is assembled with only six bolts.

The Double Gears Run Quietly because they are made with great accuracy. The small gears, except for the largest sizes, are cut from steel bars and are very true and uniform. The large gears are machine molded with great exactness.

Speed Regulation. The tension of the vane spring is now such that the wheel will regulate winds when slow speed is desired. Adjustment for higher speed is easily made.

The New Brake is made adjustable.

We can sell our customers the Improved Aermotor with full confidence that we are giving the best windmill that skill can produce and at prices which are made possible only by the most modern factory equipment.

Too Small
When You Do It Electrically!

Neither has electricity failed on a task requiring precision. Whether it be supplying the power to run the kitchen clock or the largest motor in the greatest industrial plant—Electricity will do the task best and most efficiently.

But it cannot be any more dependable than the generating, transforming and distribution equipment which supplies it to these load points. The Texas Utilities Company is proud of the fact that its equipment is unsurpassed by any in the entire Southwest, and its service is of the very highest standard.

In order to supply this high standard service the Texas Utilities Company in 1930 made a big investment in building the gigantic Tuco Generating Plant. It had used oil engines to turn the generators which generated the power before that time. Tuco station generates its power by means of steam turbine driven generators—which is the very best equipment, and the most reliable in operation.

Our sustomers know that their electric service is as near perfect as man can make it. There's a world of a lot of difference between GOOD ELECTRIC SERVICE and just "electric service."

Wayside Items

Real winter for some days. Saturday windy and cold, very disagreeable on the outside. Heavy ice for several mornings. Considerably moderated this Tuesday.

Sunday school Sunday morning led by the new superintendent, Mrs. Bessie Lane. Fine crowd for the inclement day. Thirty-five in attendance.

Rev. J. A. Lindley and wife were with us Sunday, filled his regular appointments. His sermons are always good.

Coughs and colds in every family. Heard of no prostrations so far.

Lloyd Cowart and family and nephew from Olney spent the past week end with Charlie Bill Schrier and wife.

The CWA project is giving us a good road running east and west, south of Wayside. A goodly number of men are given employment four days in the week. A good thing for many needy citizens.

J. M. McGehee has been visiting in and around Wayside about a week. He will return to Gallegos, N. M., soon.

Odell and Ruth Gillham of Pampa came for Mrs. Etta Gillham Saturday. They returned same day.

Late report from Mrs. Velma Whitten says they live at Bagwell, Texas. Anxious to hear from Wayside again.

Announcement from M. C. Sluder and wife report an 8 pound son born Jan. 3, Marlin Oliver, by name.

U. S. 'Balbo' and His Route

The longest open-water mass flight ever attempted—from the United States to Hawaii over a route more than 2000 miles long—is the result of several months of planning by Lieut. Comm. Kneffler McGinnis, above, leader of the flight, and his assistants. Several of the huge navy VP-10 flying boats in the six-plane armada making the flight are shown above, together with a map of the course.

C.C.C. CAMP NEWS

By Nugent L. Lowrey
Camp 1828

Activity around the Veterans' Camp at Palo Duro Canyon is much similar to that back in July when the camp was new and all Companies were filled almost to capacity. New men have been arriving during the past three days, these having just enlisted into CCC service from both South and East Texas with quite a bunch from the Panhandle and West Texas sections. Among the recruits are included some former Palo Duro members who recently withdrew to accept employment, such employment having proved only temporary, and they came back into CCC work in accordance with the new recruiting order.

A convoy of trucks left on Tuesday morning for Fort Sill, Oklahoma, to bring back clothing and some other supplies needed at once, due to the increase in number of men in all four companies.

As recognition of the remarkable progress being made in the work here, and of the fact that this is the largest Veterans' CCC camp in the Nation, an interesting article appeared in the last issue of Happy Days, which is the CCC official paper published in Washington, D. C.

Chaplain Gus Ramage has gone to his home at Pecos, Texas, for a visit of a few days, the primary purpose of his visit being to see his daughter, Margaret, graduate from grammar school. During his absence he has appointed a committee to care for recreational activity. On Saturday evening of this week, when the mixed Glee Club of W. T. S. T. S. will entertain, Colonel Coppock will be in charge of the program and will act as Master of Ceremonies.

Colonel Coppock is taking an active interest in the programs being presented by musical groups from Canyon and Amarillo, and he is always present at the programs when in Camp. He has also been making trips through the Palo Duro surveying the work project, and has been familarizing himself with conditions and operations in and around the camp.

On next Sunday morning, in the absence of the Chaplain, religious services will be in charge of L. B. Saxon, a member of the Veteran enrollment, who will deliver a sermon.

During the past week, boxing has become popular at the Camp. There are several men here who have had professional experience in boxing, and some good exhibitions have been given.

Good progress is being made by the Camp Orchestra, and it is being planned to give a good minstrel show composed of camp talent in the near future.

HOW WOMEN CAN WIN MEN AND MEN WIN

The Favor of Other Men

Unless two pints of bile juice flow daily from your liver into your bowels, your food decays in your bowels. This poisons your whole body. Movements get hard and constipated. You get yellow tongue, yellow skin, pimples, dull eyes, bad breath, bad taste, gas, dizziness, headache. You have become an ugly-looking, foul-smelling, sour-thinking person. You have lost your personal charm. Everybody wants to run from you.

But don't take salts, mineral waters, oils, laxative pills, laxative candies or chewing gums and expect them to get rid of this poison that destroys your personal charm. They can't do it, for they only move out the tail end of your bowels and that doesn't take away enough of the decayed poison. Cosmetics won't help at all.

Only a free flow of your bile juice will stop this decay poison in your bowels. The one mild vegetable medicine which starts a free flow of your bile juice is Carter's Little Liver Pills. No calomel (mercury) in Carter's. Only fine, mild vegetable extracts. If you would bring back your personal charm to win men, start taking Carter's Little Liver Pills according to directions today. 25c at drug stores.

Refuse "something just as good", for it may gripe, loosen teeth or scald rectum. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills by name and get what you ask for. ©1933, C.M.Co.

Y. W. C. A. To Give Unique Musical

Music Memories, Dances And Skits To Feature Program

"Forty Years of Popular Songs," an original presentation of almost half a hundred tunes that have caught the musical ear of America since the time of the "gay nineties," will be given by the Y. W. C. A. as its annual open program for students, faculty and townspeople in the auditorium of the administration building Monday night, January 22nd, at 8:15.

The Y. W. C. A. is the originator of all-college Stunt Night, an evening of fun which it sponsors on alternate years and which has never failed to fill the auditorium with an enthusiastic audience.

Will Please Young and Old

This year's revue promises to be a performance which will please the old and the young alike. "We plan to make the evening a thrilling revival of musical memories," says Dorothy McKenzie, president of the Y. W. C. A. and general chairman of the program committee.

The revue will open with a clever presentation of an old favorite, "After the Ball," and will close, appropriately, with "The Big Bad Wolf" a la extravaganza. Such hits as "Daisies Won't Tell," "Red Wing," "Barney Googles," "Missouri Waltz," and others will be neatly sandwiched between.

Quartette of Mixed Voices

A double quartette of mixed voices will introduce many of the numbers; but, in order to lend variety to the program, dances, dramatic skits, and pantomimes will be used.

The Canyon Novelty Orchestra, popular musical organization of the community, has been invited to appear before the performance and during the intermissions.

In announcing this year's funnight program, the Y. W. C. A. posts its usual money-back guarantee—a quarter's worth of fun for a dime or your money refunded!

Midnight Show to Be Staged Jan. 23 at Amarillo

Theater-goers of Canyon and vicinity soon will have an opportunity to see the first big musical show at Amarillo in more than a year.

Wilbur C. Hawk has been successful in booking the Greater Marcus Show of 1934 for one performance only, Tuesday midnight, January 23, in Amarillo's municipal auditorium.

Despite the magnitude of the show—there are more than 70 persons in the troupe—the price scale is exceptionally low, reserved seats ranging from 50 cents to $1.50, plus tax.

Mr. Hawk in announcing the show urged patrons over the Panhandle to mail reservations early to Miss Lois Black at The Globe-News in Amarillo.

The Greater Marcus Show of 1934 is on a round-the-world tour and will make no other stop between Amarillo and San Francisco. The company will sail February 8 to open the largest theater in the world, in Nippon Eiga Gekijo at Tokyo, Japan.

On the transcontinental trip a special train of Pullmans and baggage cars is required.

For the midnight attraction in Amarillo the Greater Marcus show of 1934 will present "La Vie Paree," a French night club extravaganza.

There are many stars in "La Vie Paree," including such foreign artists as Ha Cha San and La Fanette, sensational dancers; the Bounding Ali Babas from Mecca, Bagdad and way points, Loon Miller, Lillian McCoy, Bea Winsome and others.

"La Vie Paree" has a chorus of 36 "Marcus Peaches" and carries a band and orchestra, the California Night Hawks.

"It's been a long time since a big attraction has been booked and at the low price scale I am sure there will be a rush for reservations," said Mr. Hawk.

WEEKLY MILK INSPECTIONS WILL BE HELD IN FUTURE

City health officials wish to thank the producers of buttermilk as well as fluid milk producers for their co-operation in getting their permits and those who have not done so to attend to this as soon as possible.

We also want to ask food handlers, restaurants, drug stores and grocery stores to get only graded products in compliance with the ordinance.

Inspections will be made weekly for a while to help the food handlers to get the proper products. Also to give them large placards to display so that the public may know that they have milk and milk products from approved sources only.

Postal Receipts For 1933 Show an Increase Over '32

Postal receipts of the Canyon post office showed an increase of $282.11 over the receipts of 1932, according to a report compiled by Dewey Foster, assistant postmaster.

The receipts of the local office were as follows:

1932	$15,026.19
1933	$15,308.30

The big gain for the year came in the last quarter when the receipts were $4,883.98 as compared with $4,110.64 for the last quarter of 1932.

Dallas Man Gets Contract For Concrete Road East

W. S. Crawford of Dallas was low bidder on the fourteen concrete structures on the road to the Palo Duro State Park. His bid was $20,055.

Work will start at once, and will likely take about two months.

A large part of the caliche work will be completed on this road by the end of next week. The fill at the Tierra Blanca and Timber Creek will not be covered with caliche until the bridges are completed.

Putting caliche on the road in the Park is being held up for the present awaiting plans.

Buffs Open With 2 Thrilling Games Friday, Saturday

Playing a good brand of basketball for their first games of the season, the West Texas Buffaloes bowed to the Southwestern Oklahoma Teachers in a basketball series on the Buffs home court, by the scores of 43-30, and 25-26.

The first game was easy for the Bulldogs who took a big advantage of the nervous and inconsistent first-nighters, using their experience gained in earlier games to defeat the flustrated Bison Herd. The Herd was also handicapped by the unexpected loss of "Cow" Williams, and last year's letterman playing the guard position. The team against which the Oklahoma Bulldogs played had practiced together very little, putting Ted Phillips in "Cow's" place. Ted turned in a commendable game, however, and with the exception of their lack of confidence and nervousness, the Herd did well. McMinn led the Buffs' scoring with 9 points, while Francis, snappy Bulldog forward, led the field with 13 points.

The next game was played to a different tune, with the Buffs wary and steady on the defensive and fast and confident on the offensive. The game kept the crowd on its feet with its close scores and narrow escapes. McMinn and Francis, both stellar men in the first game, were held to almost nothing. Francis scoring 2 points, both on gratis shots, while McMinn made no scores.

Kaiser of Southwestern was high point man, tipping in three field goals and three free shots for 9 points. Stroud, Buffalo Captain, was next with 7 points.

Both games showed the team which Coach Carl York will have after a little more experience. Those cynics who have accused W. T. of dying in the basketball field will be surprised when they see the team that will play against the Northwestern Oklahoma Teachers from Alva in Burton Gym this week end.

Canyon Club Names Directors Monday For Coming Year

Stockholders of the Canyon Club met Monday at the court house for the purpose of hearing the annual report of the directors and electing new directors for the coming year. H. Prichard, president, was in the chair. Secretary Oscar Gano reported on the activities of the club for the past year.

Cleaning the creek, rebuilding the dam, restocking the creek with fish and improving the golf course were among the major improvements of the year.

The following directors were named for the coming year: H. Prichard, Levi Cole, A. W. Sternenberg, Donald Trollinger, R. A. Terrill, S. H. Condron and Ross Craig.

The dues were lowered from $24 to $18 for the coming year.

FORMER CITIZEN KILLED IN FORT WORTH ACCIDENT

S. F. Wiggins, 79, was killed Friday night near his home in Fort Worth while on his way to church. He was hit by an automobile when the traffic lights changed.

Mr. Wiggins is the father of Sam Wiggins and Mrs. E. C. Pennick of this city. Three other brothers survive, Pete Wiggins of Running Water, John Wiggins of Dallas, and Tom Wiggins of Fort Worth. The wife and mother lives in Fort Worth.

Mr. Wiggins was a farmer near Happy for 7 years, moving to this section 31 years ago.

His death was the third by automobile accident in Fort Worth on Friday of last week.

The funeral services were conducted by Rev. J. Frank Norris, of whose church he was a member.

EPISCOPAL CHURCH

Rev. Warwick Aiken will preach and conduct the service at the Episcopal Church next Sunday night, Jan. 14th, at 8:00 o'clock. It will be the second Sunday in the Epiphany season, and the Church directs that we shall think of the baptism of our Lord.

Everyone is cordially invited to attend all services of this church, and to meet the minister afterwards at the Little House of Fellowship. Since his home is in Plainview, this is his only opportunity to get acquainted with his Canyon congregation, or to meet with the students, and he and Mrs. Page are always glad to receive all who attend the evening service.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Come to Sunday School at 9:45.

The morning worship service at 11, will have a background of music.

At the evening service beginning at 7:30, the minister will discuss "The Magnificient Obsession," by Lloyd C. Douglas.

John and Stewart Mahle of Slaton came Saturday to visit their sister, Mrs. Carl Hair.

Condron Is Made Director of Adult N. T. Committee

Professor S. H. Condron, head of the department of Government of the West Texas State Teachers College, has been made dirctor of adult education for the Northwest Texas Conference of the Methodist Church. He will have nine regional directors in his department. He works with Rev. W. B. Hamilton, Conference Educational Secretary.

A regional conference will be held soon in Amarillo, with Dr. J. O. Schisler of Nashville, Tennessee, as one of the speakers.

Taut nerves mean tired tomorrows

"Did you hear that noise...?"

How many times have husbands been awakened in the middle of the night by that tense question? How many times have wives been rudely reminded . . . "It's your imagination . . .!"

But, fear is something real. Taut nerves cause sleepless nights and tired tomorrows. A woman is afraid...and a man fails to make an out-of-town trip essential to his business. Serious illness often is traceable to fear.

May we suggest a simple remedy?

Have a telephone installed within easy reach of the bed. It's a comfort to know that police, firemen, physicians, await your call. And, wouldn't it be a pleasure to have a willing servant ready to run your errands, help you to visit with friends . . . 24 hours a day?

You can have a telephone for less than a dime a day. Call the Business Office. Say: "I want a telephone."

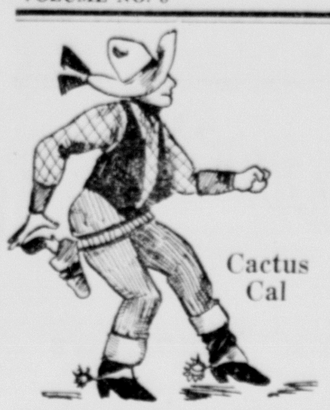
THE EAGLE'S TALE

VOLUME NO. 8 CANYON, TEXAS JANUARY 11, 1934. NUMBER 17



Cactus Cal

And are Vega good sports?

Well, I'd say. They wuz as good a sport as I'd ever seen out here in this country. There wusn't no knock-downs and drag outs or back talk to the referee—and them teams the kind of kids I like to see play. When you tried to tie ball with them, instead of gettin mad, they jest grinned and went ahead.

I heard sum uv them Vega gals tell Morgan that they liked the way he refereed, well, that ain't anymore than I've thought all the time.

You gals and boys jest did fine, at least good enough to win two games. And thats a very good way to start the New Years off. Let's keep up the record. Whatta say? But don't forgit about your mid-term grades or you might be sittin' on the side lines at the next game as an ineligible Eagle.

Say, I've really got the dope on the exams. The teachers got real confident with me and told me all the questions and answers—so jist cum around ang get a list uv 'em fer any subject—but you've gotta promise you'll write at the bottom of the page, "told to me by Cactus Cal." One uv Miss Goodriches questions is "Tell somethin' uv Chaucer's life as a negro-slave before the civil War." "Why is "The Alamo" still an attraction for Canyon people?" is Mr. Terry's main Texas History question.

I've got orders to quit makin' the questions so public, that sum high school kid might read 'em.

Well, I'll wait until next week to see how smart you kids feel by then. Your pal,

CACTUS CAL.

Work Begun on Cantata "Rip Van Winkle"

The Glee Clubs of the fifth, sixth and especially the seventh grades with the High School Girls' Glee Club have begun work on a cantata, "Rip Van Winkle." This cantata will be given in public sometime toward the latter part of the year.

History Department Gets Chronicle Series Books

Last week the American history students were fortunate in receiving a group of books which were needed very much. The twelve books received were of The Chronicles of American Series, edited by Allen Johnson. Two copies of each book were received.

Henry Jones Ford: "The Cleveland Era."

Burton J. Hendrick: "The Age of Big Business."

Harold Howland: "Theodore Roosevelt and His Times."

John Moody: "The Railroad Builders."

Carl Russell Fish: "The Path of Empire."

William E. Dodd: "The Cotton Kingdom."

Canyon's High School Cagers To Play The Tulia Hornets In Double Header Sat. Night

Canyon High's Cagers will be hosts to the Tulia Hornets in a doubleheader cage contest here Saturday night.

Both games promise to be thrillers; the boys and girls from Tulia defeated the Canyon teams 24 to 15, and 28 to 20 respectively, at Tulia, December 22.

The game promises to be much better this week as both teams have improved and several members were absent from the Canyon squads Dec. 22.

The Eagles will play the Happy Jacks at Happy Friday night.

No game has been scheduled Friday night for the girls, but an effort is being made to schedule one.

So That You May Know

This week closes the first semester in the Canyon Grade School. Mid-term tests will be given in the upper grades on Thursday and Friday and all report cards will go out on Tuesday of next week.

For administrative reasons standard achievement tests will not be used throughout the school at this time. However they will be given all new pupils, special groups or individuals where teacher or pupils feel the need of such a test to stimulate progress or check a method.

Many pupils who were below standard for their grade at the beginning of the term have been given remedial work and have made a conscientious effort to improve their background. Now they are eager for a check in order to compare their scores. They appreciate the fact that they are not competing with others who perhaps have had better advantages but with themselves. Satisfactory scores are already coming in from groups who had their check last week. In some cases the scores for certain subjects are still not up to grade standard and yet they show such an increase over previous scores that the individuals are to be highly praised for progress made. Some of the more able ones in class do not show as much progress as some of their more backward neighbors. All of which goes to show that this is only one more means of checking the progress of the pupils and the teacher can be a little more certain of the ones who need prodding or their curriculum enriched.

Parents are urged to confer with the principal and teachers in regard to the work of their children. We are never too busy to arrange such conferences, for in co-operation there is strength.

Faculty Facts

An outstanding member of the Canyon Public School faculty teaches sixth and seventh grade geography and coaches boys' athletics. It is, as you probably already know, Coach Cleveland Jones, who has taught here two years.

Coach Jones was born in Marietta Oklahoma, and moved to Canyon when he was one year old. His early childhood playmates were Pat Gerald and Tracy Service. He went through the grade school of Canyon High School, a small chap often overlooked especially on the football field. He came out for football four years but made the team only two years in which Canyon lost only one game each season. He managed to get in a little better on the basketball team, as size didn't matter so much there. Of the three years he made the basketball team, he helped the team fight its way through to the state tournament, where it was finally defeated.

After graduation from C. H. S. he took his stand in W. T. as an Art Major. His college athletic career was somewhat better than that of his high school. He played four years of college football and basketball—all quite successful years. Two of the Buffalo basketball teams he played on were T. I. A. A. championship teams.

After receiving his degree he went to Blair, Nebraska, and taught a successful year at Dana College there. Last summer he went to Chicago to visit the Century of Progress. While in Chicago, he took a special coaching course which has benefitted him more than once.

The boomerang was invented by aborigines of Australia—newspaper item. And perfected by American business men who paid their employees low wages.

Talk On Problems of Young People Given By Hicks

Rev. J. R. Hicks, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Canyon, talked to the student body, assembled in Chapel Thursday, last.

Beginning his talk with an interesting summary of the celebrated Bible story concerning that old patriarch, Jonah, he brought in a number of the more prominent problems among young people and especially high school students.

"There is no greater honor for a man," Rev. Hicks stated," than that of being respected among his fellows."

Another point of especial interest was, "One doesn't have to be dishonest to weronb 8gfdwya dishonest to be wrong." Rev. Hicks then brought his talk to the inspirational conclusion, "Live in word, deed, and thought above the shadow of reproach."

Next Semester Offers Variety of New Students

The students of Canyon High School have access to a variety of new subjects for the second semester.

Journalism, a course on how to write and edit newspapers, is offered to sophomores, juniors, and seniors.

Freshmen and sophomores can take physical geography which is the study of the physical features of the earth, in its relation to the universe.

Commercial law and commercial geography may be taken by seniors.

Agriculture is offered to all boys of the school.

With these many subjects, students will be able to finish out their credits so as to be able to graduate or have the correct number of credits to pass on to the next class.

Rules In Essay Writing Changed

The new rules of essay writing provide for competition of essay writers at county, district, reigonal, and state meets. Heretofore, the essays have been forwarded from county meets to district meets and from district meets to the state meet. Under the present plan instead of forwarding the essays, the winning contestants are advanced from meet to meet, and participate in rebate privileges at the State meet. In short, the essay contestant now has a chance, along with other participants in League contests, to enjoy a trip to the State meet. Many English teachers are reporting that with this incentive, pupils who never before evinced interest in the essay contest are this year hard at work preparing for county competitions. —The Interschoastic League.

C.H.S. Ex-Student Doing Excellent Work at A. C. C.

Norma Jean Burgess, a graduate of Canyon High School in 1933, is doing outstanding work in Abilene Christian College this year.

She started her college work taking six subjects and has made 3 A's and 3 B's, an excellent record for her first quarter in college.

Norma Jean was valedictorian of the class of '33 of Canyon High School.

Seniors Rings Are Ordered

The order for part of the senior rings was sent off this week.

The seniors have changed the rings from the old ones to an entirely different ring, which has the emblem of an eagle and C. H. S. engraved in the ring. On the shoulder of the ring "34" and the torch of learning is located. The seniors plan that this be a permanent ring.

The seniors who have sent off the order for their rings are very anxious for them to arrive.

And now it's stylish for women to carry something on the hip.

TO THE STUDENTS:

This week ends the first semester of the 1933-34 school year. Now is the time to take an inventory of what ew have or haven't done. If we have planned well and have worked hard, we will surely have much to our credit at the close of the term. If we have failed to plan and failed to work, let us not be too discouraged by failure, but use it as an incentive to greater efforts in 1934.

Time spent in school is valuable time. Valuable times should not be wasted but utilized to its greatest advantage. Competition for every man and woman is getting keener every day. If we succeed in life we cannot afford to waste a minute of time.

I. B. CARRUTH.

Seniors Don't Need Stars To Show Bright Futures

In years to come will the present seniors be singing a lullaby or a college song? Is job hunting to be their end, or will they be prepared for some special work? Is Canyon to have the pleasure of being their home town or will some other town be honored? Are they destined to be another "home town youngster making good" or will they never be heard of again? Not even a radio fortune-teller could answer all of the questions; however, correct information (as nearly as possible) has been obtained from twenty-eight of the seniors of '33-'34.

From Canyon High, more so than in most public schools, there will probably be a large percent that plan a college career, because of the college that is located here.

Out of the class, nineteen have chosen the school in which they will receive their training, and from this group only one out-of-state college was selected. W. T. S. T. C. is the choice of eleven students; however this does not mean eleven teachers from this group for only three plan to teach, and one of this three prefers another occupation to teaching, if she can attend Texas University and get the work that is necessary to be a newspaper woman. The other eight who are to attend W. T. plan varied occupations, such as secretarial work or clerking in a store, traveling, office work, or newspaper work, bookkeeping, interior decorating, librarian, and last but very important is the house-wife.

Three other colleges within the state were also named. A. C. C. will train one girl in the art of public speaking. Three boys, who are interested in engineering and agricultural work have chosen A. & M. College at College Station. One of these boys plans to be a farmer, one an engineer, and one an aviator. A unique, but interesting occupation has been chosen by a boy who plans to be a Weatherford, Okla., graduate, that of an aviator in the army.

There are three others who know they are going to college and have chosen a career, but who have not decided which college will be able to give them the best preparation. Manual training, civil engineering, and teaching of primary education are the chosen majors and occupations.

In every group, large or small, there is always a number who are undecided; however, out of a group of twenty-eight only four have not made plans for the future. From this group three colleges were decided on if a college education is possible, Tech, W. T. and C. I. A. From this undecided group will be found two interested in housekeeping; one desires to be a radio expert or civil engineer, and one would like to be a Home Economics teacher.

The five who have planned not to go to college have chosen occupations that do not require a college education. One boy is to learn farming from experience; the one girl is to train for a nurse in some hospital; two boys are to become aviators by attending either a government aviator school or the San Antonio school, and one boy is now an interested ranch boy from New Mexico, wished to return to his former occupation as a rancher.

In summarizing the varied occupations we find that the teachers lead with six, the aviators, a close second with four, the farmer, journalist and business man are third with two each, then one each as radio expert, nurse, rancher, interior decorator, travelling, librarian and mechanical engineer, and only three are undecided.

May you seniors profit by your instruction and experience in Canyon High School and may your every undertaking be a success.

People who brood over the past must expect an unsatisfactory hatch.

Some folks are known by the bill collectors they keep knocking at their doors.

Plaster, Foster and Oldham Receive High Awards In Fashion Show And Contest

On Friday, January 5, the thirty-eight girls who have taken the first-year sewing course in Home Economics the first semester held a fashion show as well as contest as to which seven girls had the dresses which qualified highest in general appearance, fit, simplicity, suitability to person, workmanship, seams suitable to type of material, machine stitching, finish of seams, and special features.

The girls receiving awards were:

1st prize—Fay Plaster.
2nd prize—Rubye Foster.
3rd prize—Marielle Oldham.
4th prize—Thelma Bryant.
5th prize—Mary Collins.
6th prize—Yvonne Thomas.
7th prize—Wilma Price.

The judges were Mrs. Frank R. Phillips and Misses Gladys Stewart and Arpa Dennis.

Home Ec. Girls Entertain Pre-School Children

The third year Home Economics girls entertained some children of pre-school age Monday from three to four in the Home Economics room. The girls brought toys from home for the children to play with, and Irene Mullins told them stories. Some of the toys brought were a washing machine, ironing board and iron, toy telephone, and stove. One of the little girls remarked, "This stove gets hot, but you have to electrocute it before it does" At the close of the hour the children were served orange juice and animal crackers.

The children entertained were: A. C. Garland, Jerry Garland, Edna Lois Cone, Marylyn Condron, Carol Ray Dickerson, Fannie Alice Pierce, and Edith Jo Beckett.

Eaglettes And Eagles Defeat Vega Teams

Canyon High School's basketeers won a double header from the Vega teams last Saturday night at the Eagle gym. The boys won by a score of 15 to 11, and the Eaglettes won by a score of 33 to 21.

The Eagle quintet took the lead in the first few minutes of the game, and kept a fair lead thruout the game.

Solomon, Eagle center, was high point man with 6 points, and McCombs, Vega forward, had 5 points to his credit.

Neither team was able to find the basket often enough to run up a score. Both teams played doog defensive games.

In the girls' game Schmitz opened the scoring after a free shot. Crawford, Eaglette forward, was high point scorer.

The Vega sextet was unable to sink any of their long shots until the last period when it was too late to overcome the Eaglettes' lead.

Children Hear Damrosch Hour

The Grade School on Friday, January 5, enjoyed another music appreciation radio program under the direction of Walter Damrosch. The instruments featured this time were the kettledrum, military or snare drum, cymbals, triangles, tambourine, xylaphone, celesta, and the chimes.

The numbers played by the orchestra were as follows:

Scherzo from Symphony No. 9 in D minor.

Entrance of the Gods into Vallhalla from "The Rhinegold."

Overture to "Fra Dianala."

Anitra's Dance from "Peer Gynt" Suite.

Polka, "Thunder and Lightning."

Dance of the Sugar Plum Fairy.

The children voted the last number "Dance of the Sugar Plum Fairy" as their favorite piece on the program. It is an interesting fact that the children from all over the United States vote upon their favorite number and the one receiving the most votes is replayed on the following program.

Work on One Act Play Begins

The one-act play, chosen for Canyon High School's entry in the Interscholastic League is entitled "Fixin's," by Paul and Erna Green.

The selection, a tragedy, is a Carolina folk play dealing with tenant farm life.

The play was read Monday night, and Tuesday night two casts were chosen. These casts will both practice the play and the better characters from the two casts will be chosen.

The characters in "Fixin's" are two men and one woman. The woman longs for the little "fixin's" that help so much to make a woman's life happy. The two men, who invest all their money on the material things in life, cannot seem to understand why she longs so much for the little things.

Work which has begun on this play, will continue until the Interscholastic League meet.

Spanish Legends Are Discussed In Spanish Club

The Spanish club enjoyed a very interesting program Tuesday, January 2. The program was as follows:

Song, "El Rio Swanee."

"The Alhambra"—Mavis Hardin.

Song—"Luna Carolina."

"Playing Bear in Old Mexico"—Irene Mullins.

Songs— "America," "Juanita," "Buenos Noches Damas."

Piano solo—Lee Christine Cousins.

Refreshments of assorted candics were served.

MUSIC APPRECIATION

"If young men had music and pictures to interest them, to engage them and satisfy many of their impulses and to enliven their days, they would not go to the low pleasures of the streets; they would have an alternative and would be too fastidious to do so," says George Bernard Shaw.

Did it ever occur to you that very little music is being worked into the actual high school program?

We need and desire more music during the chapel programs. Some of the students haven't any idea of what classical music is. Why not educate the pupils along this line as well as by long talks which sometimes grow tiring?

Music helps to break the monotony of school. We seem to forget everything except lessons and exams during school. Why not add a little music appreciation to liven these dull days of studying?

Music satisfies the mind; it is entertaining, and the students of the high school need to come in contact with better musical programs, which could easily be worked into the school by a direct method.—L. F. B.

P.T.A. To Meet Thursday, Jan. 8 In Auditorium

The Parent Teachers Association will meet at 3:15, Thursday, Jan. 18, in the high school auditorium. For the first part of the program, Mrs. J. D. Barker will present some of the students from the grade school in some musical numbers.

Following this, Superintendent I. B. Carruth will speak on the "Cause of failure in high school."

All mothers are urged to be present.

WHAT WOULD HAPPEN IF—

Ed Brooks should come to school regularly?

The muffler would automatically re-appear on Marshall Rockwell's car?

Lorine Bessire would cut her hair?

Assembly programs were made more interesting?

Each reporter would get his articles in before Monday?

All writing on desks were stopped?

English students failed to appreciate literature?

Prentice McKee weren't so bashful?

Ray Ford Rusk were not stiff legged?

The Eagle's Tale staff should publish everything each member would like to?

Every student in Canyon High School should pass all mid-term examinations?

Wonder if Sally Rand, the fan dancer, gets much fan mail from male fans.

The chief trouble with money is that it is never quite enough.

Candidates Will Cover County by Using The News

This is political year. Randall county will have a number of candidates, none of whom have money to waste on schemes which will be presented. Every campaign year brings forth a number of new schemes, all intended to separate the candidate from his money, without giving him returns.

Various publications will be presented to the candidates, with the claim that they reach the voters.

Without fear of challenge, The Canyon News states that a larger percent of the actual voters of Randall county will be reached through advertising in The News than through the use of other publications, and other schemes which will be presented. The candidates must visit with the voters — that is taken for granted in each and every campaign. The News will carry the messages prepared by the candidates, at the lowest possible rate.

The News is printing this statement only for the sake of the candidates, who will be sought as victims of many promotors who seek to extract their hard earned money.

Political advertising in The News is strictly cash in advance. All candidates should consider this before asking that their announcements be made in The News.

Deluge Brings Tragedy to Los Angeles

Climaxing the heaviest rain in the history of Los Angeles county, Calif., flood waters surged into the lowlands about the city, bringing death to more than 40 persons and inflicting property damage estimated at many millions. The photo above is a scene taken in Glendale, after the waters had subsided, and that below shows a street during the flood.

WHY GET UP NIGHTS?

USE BUCHU AND GIN
Make This 25c Test

It is as valuable to the bladder as castor oil to the bowels. Drives out impurities and excess acids which cause the irritation resulting in getting up nights, burning, frequent desire, leg pains and backache. On account of the alcohol use juniper oil from which gin is made. Ask for Bukets, the bladder laxative also containing buchu leaves, etc. After four days, if not pleased your druggist will return your 25c. You are bound to sleep better after this cleansing. City Pharmacy says Bukets is a best seller.

Funeral Services Held Friday For Mrs. J. M. Black

Funeral services for Mrs. J. M. Black were held Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Presbyterian Church, conducted by Rev. Chas. L. Dickey. The pall bearers were the five sons of Mrs. Black, and one son-in-law, J. C. Black, W. C. Black, J. H. Black, S. L. Black, W. S. Black, and Clyde Freeman of White Deer.

C. R. Burrow, a friend of the family for more than 30 years, paid a tribute to the deceased, speaking as follows:

Miss Madge W. George was born in Hunt County, Texas, on the third day of February, 1863. She was married to the late Dr. J. M. Black on the 14th day of April, 1885, and moved with him to Randall county in 1890, having lived here more than 43 years.

She passed away on the fourth day of January, 1934. She was a most consistent, faithful and loyal member of the Presbyterian Church for almost 48 years and a charter member of the Presbyterian church of Canyon.

Two children have preceded her, while seven, J. C., J. H., W. C., and S. L. of Canyon, W. S. of Tulia, Miss Pearl of Canyon, and Mrs. J. C. Freeman of White Deer, survive her. Also one brother, N. W. George of Canadian, Oklahoma, and three sisters, Miss Hanna George, Mrs. J. A. Abernathy and Mrs. J. L. Tarlton, all of Wolfe City, Texas.

It has been less than six months since we gathered in this same church to pay our last respects to her late husband, D. J. M. Black, since which time it has been my privilege to have been in consultation with her, and I have found her at all times wanting to do just a bit more than what seemed right, through fear she might not do enough.

She was always actuated by a desire to be honest, fair and above board in her every act.

During the more than thirty years I have known her, I have known her as a devoted wife and mother, a loyal friend and neighbor. Devoted to the welfare of her husband and the best interest of her children, she truly had a mother's love—a mother's wealth of love, so great that the power of death and the victorious grave cannot extinguish its quenchless flame. She was a home loving mother, which might be the better expressed by:

Nobody knows the work it takes
To keep the home together,
Nobody knows of the step it takes,
Nobody knows—but mother.

Nobody listens to childish woes,
Which kisses only smother;
Nobody's pained by naughty blows,
Nobody—only mother.

Nobody knows of the sleepless care
Bestowed on baby brother;
Nobody knows of the tender prayer,
Nobody—only mother.

Nobody knows of the lessons taught
Of loving one another;
Nobody knows of the patience sought,
Nobody—only mother.

Nobody knows of the anxious fears,
Lest darlings may not weather
The storms of life in after years,
Nobody knows—but mother.

Nobody kneels at the Throne above
To thank the Heavenly Father
For that sweet gift—a mother's love;
Nobody can—but mother.

Through a kin and friendly feeling of which I am confident your many friends and acquaintances would gladly express to you, may I give this word to you—the children: God has been gracious to you in your parents. They have lived beautifully before you, and if you make your own life as Christian and as beautiful, your commendation comes from them as well as from God.

May the Spirit be given to you to sustain you, God's grace sufficient for you, their example a pathway before you.

Dairymen Plan For Annual Banquet–Report on Milk Law

The first regular meeting of the Randall County Dairymen's Association for 1934 was held at the court house, Tuesday night. About 50 were present. Louis Dodson, Dairy inspector for the Amarillo Health Department, gave a very interesting talk on enforcement of the milk ordinance in Canyon. Inspector Dodson stressed the importance of a full understanding of the provisions of the milk ordinance on the part of the dairymen. He expressed appreciation of the splendid co-operation given him in the past by the dairymen. Mr. Dodson also gave a short outline of the Rural Sanitation campaign now being conducted in connection with some of the public works projects.

Ted Ratcliff, Milk Administrator for the Amarillo milk shed, gave a brief review of the present milk price and marketing agreement.

It was decided to hold the regular annual banquet again this year. The time and place was left to the banquet committee, composed of Albert Byars, C. C. Stewart and John Haines. A banquet finance committee, composed of L. T. Campbell, J. W. McCrerey and H. R. Fulton, was named to look after the financial end of the annual party.

President M. H. Rockwall presided at the meeting. Other officers and directors for 1934 are: Albert Byars, vice president; L. T. Campbell, secretary; H. R. Fulton, L. L. Monroe, Tom Lair, L. J. Fulton, E. Gidden, and R. O. Allison, directors.

COL. COPPOCK TALKS TO STUDENTS SATURDAY

Col. Edward Coppock addressed the students of the College and a large number of other citizens at the Assembly hour last Saturday; his talk, "Over There" dealt with welfare work among the men who were stationed in the Rhine region following the world war.

Col. Coppock is commanding officer at the Palo Duro CCC camp.

VISITS HERE

Judge Sam G. Bratton, former U. S. Senator and at present Circuit Judge of the 10th District, visited in Canyon Saturday with his cousins, Mrs. S. H. Condron and Mrs. Fred Soll. He was much interested in the development of the Palo Duro Park and at the college, as it had been several years since he had been here.

Coin Collection In Museum Dates From 359 B. C. To Present Time

Pieces Used In Roman Empire Were Highly Artistic

A coin collection, including pieces dating from Macedonia, 359 B. C., to United States coins of the present time is the latest addition to the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society Museum of this city.

There are 358 pieces in the collection, which is loaned by Elmer Patterson of Hereford.

The Patterson coin collection is displayed in a case which contains nothing else, and each coin can be easily seen, and each is carefully labelled for the benefit of those who are interested in Numismatics. There are coins of copper, nickel, silver, iron and gold.

Children who have read and dreamed of pirates' gold will find in the collection "Pieces of Eight," Spanish coins of 1799.

Few people know that there were minted in the United States gold coins worth one quarter and one half dollar, but such was the case, for in this collection are such coins of California gold minted in 1854, shortly after the great gold rush. On the face of these coins there appears an Indian head; the reverse side carries the figure of a bear. A gold $3.00 piece is also of interest.

A note accompanying the collection calls attention to the fact that many early coins, and especially those of the Roman Empire from 41 to 340 A. D. were highly artistic, but that this quality was largely lost during the years of the Byzantine Empire, and handsome coins did not reappear until the reign of Queen Elizabeth of England.

Depressions of the Past

People who have felt a shortage of cash in 1933 will be interested in "Jackson's Hard Times Tokens," issued from 1835 to 1842, when the United States was going through a period of terrific depression and suffering.

At least 44 different countries are represented in the collection, including places as far apart as India and Norway, Japan and Brazil, Persia and the Philippine Islands, Roumania and Nova Scotia.

Naturally there are more coins from the United States than from any other country, and it has been observed that most people know very little about the designs on money which they handle every day.

There is one coin from Palestine on which there appears three different languages.

Most coins are not extremely valuable, and such value as they have is determined by the state of preservation and the number of the identical coin in existence. Coins are classified as proof coins, which are especially struck for collectors and are available only during the year of issuance; uncirculate coins, which are just as they come from the mint; fine coins, those that have lost their original luster but show no signs of wear; and good, fair, poor, and mutilated coins.

Counterfeiters sometimes attempt to reproduce rare coins, as well as those of recent or current issue.

Besides the Patterson collection, the Panhandle - Plains Museum contains several other coin and paper money collections.

Educational Rally Will Be Staged at College in March

A giant educational rally will be held in Canyon during March with representatives from schools, county and city boards of education, Parent Teacher organizations and women's clubs from at least thirty-two counties in attendance.

The preliminary plans for the meeting were made Saturday when Superintendent Ferman Sawyer of Canadian, president of the Northwest Texas Educational Conference, was in Canyon to confer with Dr. J. A. Hill concerning the meet.

Outstanding educators, including Dr. Doak S. Campbell of Peabody College, Nashville, State Superintendent L. A. Woods of Austin, Dr. Fred Ayer of the University of Texas and Dr. W. B. Bizzell of Norman, Oklahoma, have indicated their willingness to appear on the two-day program.

It is expected that the Northwest Texas Conference may become a permanent organization, and Superintendent Irby Carruth has been asked to head the committee on nominations and elections.

Miss Edna Graham of the mathematics department of the college has been requested to serve on the Committee on Legislation and Dr. J. A. Hill will represent teacher-training on the executive committee of the organization.

Special Offer On Subscriptions To Close on Monday

The special subscription offer of The Canyon News for $1.00 for one year will come to a close next Monday, January 15th, when the old price of $1.50 per year will be restored. Until that time the special clubbing rate of $5.00 for The Canyon News and The Amarillo News will be accepted.

The News is very grateful for the wonderful response to the subscription offer which has been made by the people of the county. Never in the history of this paper has so many renewals of subscriptions been received as during the past month. This the News appreciates very much.

Those whose subscriptions expire any time during 1934 may take advantage of this special offer and extend their subscription time at the rate of $1.00 per year.

W. T. ON AIR

W. T. will be on the air over WDAG Wednesday Jan. 17 at 8:30 p. m. Professor L. F. Sheffy and Dr. Harris M. Cook will be speakers and there will be musical numbers.
